

Mid-Atlantic TASA Book Club Resources

4 Items

These are resources that were shared during the discussion of the book Chesapeake Requiem by Earl Swift.

Resettling the First American 'Climate Refugees' (Published 2016)

 Nytimes

A $48 million grant for Isle de Jean Charles, La., is the first allocation of federal tax dollars to move an entire community struggling with the effects of climate change.

The US is relocating an entire town because of climate change. And this is just the beginning

 Quartz

For the first time, the government asked itself: Do you move whole communities? Who will pay for it? And, perhaps most contentiously, who do you help first?

Great Lakes still impacted by Ice Age phenomenon

Detroit Free Press

Article on isostatic rebound.

Nautical Chart of Chesapeake Bay from 1859

Noaa

